DOUGHERTY COUNTY

On the night of April 2nd, Cpl. Greg Wade and Ranger Eric White responded to a call regarding two stranded boaters on the Flint River in Albany. When the officers arrived at the location, they found the vessel and passengers stuck in a log jam away from shore, which made rescue from land impossible. The officers then launched their patrol boat and were able to secure a line to the stranded vessel which they towed to safety.

WORTH COUNTY

On April 4th, Cpl. Robbie Griner conducted an information and education program for students at Worth County Elementary School. The officer discussed the life histories of wildlife species native to Georgia and the responsibilities of Georgia's Conservation Rangers.

Region VI- Metter (Southeast)

IRWIN COUNTY

At around 10:00 a.m. on April 4, 2014, RFC Tim Hutto received a phone call from a landowner in Ocilla. The landowner explained to RFC Hutto that when his wife was leaving for work she saw what appeared to be a bald eagle in their cow pasture lying dead. RFC Hutto checked the area and found the dead eagle. The eagle had fresh blood around the head and neck area and appeared to have either been in a fight or been shot by a small caliber rifle. RFC Hutto checked with the Irwin Animal Clinic in Ocilla. They agreed to x-ray the eagle. After an x-ray was performed, it was determined by the doctor that the eagle had not been shot. The Doctor believed the eagle was in an altercation with another bird of prey and died of a talon wound. The eagle was turned over to the Game Management section of WRD.

COFFEE COUNTY

On April 5, 2014, Cpl. Morty Wood checked a property off Andrew Tanner Road that he had previously found to be baited with cracked corn for turkey. The first area of the property that Cpl. Wood checked was in a field and the officer located two hunters set up with decoys. The hunters were actively calling for turkey. After an inspection of the hunters and their guns, it was found that one of the hunter's shotguns was unplugged. A warning was issued for the unplugged gun and for hunting without a license on person. Each hunter received a citation for hunting big game over bait.

IRWIN COUNTY

On March 30, Sgt. David Reckley was patrolling for turkey hunters in the Satilla area of Irwin County. He found a vehicle parked on a hunting lease and tracked the hunters to a blind set up on a power line right-of-way. There was a feeder a short distance further down the power line and it was full of shelled corn and had fresh corn on the ground around it. Both hunters were charged with hunting big game over bait.

LAURENS COUNTY

On March 30th, Cpl. Dan Stiles was patrolling for turkey hunting activity. Cpl. Stiles located a hunter who had been hunting turkeys over bait earlier in the morning. After a short investigation the subject admitted to the violation. The subject was also found to be hunting with an unplugged shotgun. Violations for hunting with unplugged shotgun and hunting big game over bait were documented.

WHEELER COUNTY

On April 1st, Cpl. Dan Stiles was contacted by the GSP at 11:00PM to respond to a report of three missing juveniles who had attempted to navigate a local creek in a small vessel. The juveniles had contacted their parents by cell phone after sunset to report that they had abandoned their vessel and described their location. The parents were unable to locate them and the juveniles' cell phone had quit working. The Wheeler County Sheriff's office, local EMA personnel, and GSP responded to the area to locate the missing juveniles. GSP air support was contacted to assist in the search. At 2:00AM Cpl. Stiles and other searchers located the juveniles. The juveniles were checked by EMS and released to their parents uninjured.

BULLOCH COUNTY

On March 30, Corporal Shaymus McNeely, Corporal Eddie Akins, and Sergeant Don Dasher conducted a search and rescue operation on the Ogeechee River in the Eldora area. Officers responded to the area after receiving a call for assistance from the Bulloch County Sheriff's Department regarding a group of teenagers stranded on a remote section of the Ogeechee River. The teens had been exploring the flooded river swamp and had crossed several sloughs when they became lost in the dark and called 911. The officers arrived on scene at approximately 10:30 pm and began searching for the teens from the river. The four teenagers were located just before midnight and transported off the river to a nearby private landing. The four teenagers ranged in age from 13 to 19 years old and were given first aid for early on- set of hypothermia and returned to their families.

JENKINS COUNTY

On Saturday, April 5, Corporal Mike Wilcox and Sergeant Don Dasher were patrolling Big Dukes Pond WMA in Jenkins County. While on patrol the officers encountered two turkey hunters close to the sign-in board. The officers inspected the hunting license and guns of the two hunters. One of the hunters did not have a plug in his shotgun. The violation for hunting with an unplugged shotgun was documented.

WARE COUNTY

On April 5th, Cpl. Jason Shipes and RFC Mark Pool patrolled approximately 39 miles of the Satilla River for boating and fishing activity between Jamestown Landing to Hwy 158. Officers checked for valid fishing licenses, creel limits and safety requirements. During their patrol officers documented violations for fishing without a license and operating a vessel without Coast Guard approved personal flotation devices.

Officers also checked for late evening activity in the area of Hwy 84 on the Satilla River specifically checking for operating vessel during hours of darkness without proper lights and boating under the influence of alcohol. Cpl. Shipes observed a vessel returning to the landing. Upon speaking with the occupants, Cpl. Shipes observed several empty cans of alcohol. The operator was screened using a series of field sobriety exercises. The screening indicated that the operator had consumed some alcohol, but was not under the influence.
