Region I- Calhoun (Northwest)

CARROLL COUNTY

On March 28th, Cpl. Eric Brown was patrolling the southern portion of Carroll County for turkey hunting activity. He found two subjects that were coming out of the woods. One subject was cited for hunting turkey with an unplugged shotgun.

FULTON COUNTY

On March 28th, Ranger Mark Puig checked several turkey hunters in Fulton County with no violations observed. All hunters checked did not report seeing or hearing any turkey during the morning due to the sharp drop in temperature. Later that day Ranger Puig patrolled the delayed harvest section of the Chattahoochee River and checked several anglers with no violations either.

On March 29th, while patrolling the Chattahoochee River, Ranger Mark Puig assisted the Roswell Police Department with the apprehension of a man threatening a woman with a handgun who had run into the woods near the river. The man was located and successfully apprehended.

Region II- Gainesville (Northeast)

RABUN

On March 22nd, Cpl. Derek Dillard got a phone call from Rabun County Sheriff's Deputy Sgt. Kyle Shook. Sgt. Shook told Corporal Dillard that they got a phone call that a man shot at a turkey from his truck in the area of Germany Mountain Road. Sgt. Shook also gave Corporal the description of the vehicle and they began to look for it. Sgt. Shook located the truck in Clayton and stopped it. The driver, which was residing in North Carolina, had 2 shotguns and some turkey hunting equipment in his truck. While Corporal Dillard was speaking to the man, he told them that he saw a turkey strutting on the side of the road and that he couldn't stand it, so he shot at it. The man said he must have missed it because it ran off. Corporal Dillard checked the man's hunting license and it said he was a resident but his driver's license and current address said different. Corporal Dillard cited the man for hunting turkey from a public road, hunting turkey from a motor vehicle, and non-resident hunting with a resident license.

On March 25th, Cpl. Kevin Dyer and RFC David Webb were dispatched to a missing boater on Lake Burton in Rabun County. A Rabun County deputy had located the missing boater walking on Murray Cove Road. Upon arrival, Cpl. Dyer noticed a strong smell of alcohol coming from the operator. The operator admitted to flipping a kayak and operating it without any PFD's. RFC Webb conducted field sobriety and placed the operator under arrest for operating a vessel under the influence (under 21 years old) and operating a vessel without CGA approved PFD's.
