

Georgia Becoming an Outdoors-Woman July - November 2020 Calendar of Events

Due to the ongoing nature of COVID-19, BOW events are subject to change**

July:

July 18th – 2nd Annual Women’s Fly Fishing Day Event with Coosa Valley TU at Rolater Park (Cave Springs, GA)
12pm-3pm

Ladies of all ages, learn how to cast a fly rod and catch rainbow trout with members of the Coosa Valley Chapter of Trout Unlimited. We will have volunteer members that want to share their skills. You can even keep up to 5 trout caught. Our flies are barbless so that you can release the trout with minimal injury to the fish. Bring your own cooler if you wish to keep trout. Join us for a free hotdog lunch from 11:30 'til 1:30. Fly fishing starts at 1pm and lasts until 3pm. There will be plenty of door prizes for registered ladies. This is a free event! Come and see how rewarding trout fishing can be.

August:

August 15th – BOW Handgun Give It a Shot at Charlie Elliott Wildlife Center and Clybel Shooting Range

10am-2pm

Are you new shooting? Do you prefer a hands-on approach to learning? If you answered yes to both, the Give It a Shot program is designed for you! Through a partnership with Becoming an Outdoors-Woman, the Give It a Shot program will be offering a women’s only Handgun course at the Clybel Shooting Range. This course will focus on the basics of safe handgun shooting with time in the classroom and on the range. Participants will have the opportunity to practice shooting in a safe and structured environment. The cost is $5 per person, and the event is open to women ages 18 and older. A Georgia hunting or fishing license is required for this class. The class will be capped at 10 people. Please call 770-784-3059 to register. Full payment is due at time of registration.

October:

October 3rd – BOW Rifle Give It a Shot at Charlie Elliott Wildlife Center and Clybel Shooting Range

10am-2pm

Are you new shooting? Do you prefer a hands-on approach to learning? If you answered yes to both, the Give It a Shot program is designed for you! Through a partnership with Becoming an Outdoors-Woman, the Give It a Shot program will be offering a women’s only Rifle course at the Clybel Shooting Range. This course will focus on the basics of safe rifle shooting with time in the classroom and on the range. Participants will have the opportunity to practice shooting in a safe and structured environment. The cost is $5 per person, and the event is open to women ages 18 and older. A Georgia hunting or fishing license is required for this class. The class will be capped at 10 people. Please call 770-784-3059 to register. Full payment is due at time of registration.

October 10th – Canyon Hike and Campfire Building at Providence Canyon State Park

10am-1pm

Join Providence Canyon State Park in Becoming an Outdoors Woman! Women of all ages will have the chance to learn campfire building, hiking pack essentials, and join our interpretive ranger for a hike into the canyons to learn about erosion. Class will begin at 10am, please pack a lunch and plenty of water. The cost is $10 per person with $5 parking fee. Please call 229-838-4706 to register.

November:

November 6th-8th – The 9th Annual BOW Workshop at Charlie Elliott Wildlife Center

10am Friday – noon Sunday

The 9th Annual Becoming an Outdoors-Woman Workshop is an event not to be missed! This is our biggest event of the year, and offers women ages 18 and older the opportunity to try out many new skills and activities over the period of one weekend. Becoming an

Outdoors Woman (BOW) workshop focuses on learning outdoor skills in a safe and structured environment. Class activities include archery, shooting, fishing, photography, outdoor cooking, hiking, and more! Beginners are welcome and encouraged! The schedule for this event is now available on the Georgia BOW website at <https://georgiawildlife.com/BOW> . Registration will open in July.

Future Events:

December 5th - Birding, Archery, Fire building and Kayaking at Magnolia Springs State Park and George L. Smith State Park

8:00 am – 3:30 pm

This adventure will begin with a hike that focuses on the sights and sounds of birds. Each woman will become a true survivor learning the basic skills of archery, knot tying and building a campfire without a match. Once these skills are mastered, lunch will be over a campfire. Kayaking and fishing at George L. Smith will complete this adventure. The cost is $60 per person with $5 parking fee. Please call 478-982-1660 to register.

