

Flying WILD introduces students to bird conservation through school bird festivals and hands-on classroom activities. The main purpose of the Flying WILD: An Educator's Guide to Celebrating Birds is to provide activities that teach middle-school students about birds, their migration, and what people can do to help birds and their habitats.

WHAT: Flying WILD Educator Workshop
WHERE: Videoconference
DATE: February 6, 2021 8:30 a.m.–12:00 p.m.
COST: $15.00 per person

 You will receive the Flying WILD Curriculum Guide, multi-disciplinary and instructionally sound educational activities for middle school students.

 The Guide's many activities can be used to teach classroom lessons or to initiate service-learning projects that help birds and their habitats.

 The Guide helps middle-grade students, teachers, and community volunteers implement a bird festival at their school.

To register go online to <https://georgiawildlife.doubleknot.com/selection/73913>. A confirmation e-mail will be sent one week prior to the workshop with the videoconference details. For additional information, contact Amber Barrow at amber.barrow@dnr.ga.gov or at 770-784-3059.
